Hi! I'm Deep Dakshy — Cinematographer, Director & Creative Producer.

About me

Born in Kolkata, based in Berlin, with 12 years behind the camera. I started in photojournalism and graphic design, studied cinematography at MET Film School, and ended up doing all of it. Currently Creative Video Producer at Babbel, running campaigns across 10 European markets. Independently I make small-crew, character-driven films, and work in AI filmmaking and AI VFX.

Work History

Babbel GmbH, Berlin — Creative Video Producer — 2023 – Now

I set up production pipelines for shooting different types of content, from paid social to TV and online, and handle the versions for 10 markets. I work on campaigns from the idea through the shoot to the edit. Currently experimenting with AI in production.

Freelance, Berlin — Director & Cinematographer — 2021 – 2022

I directed and shot five short films with small crews and mostly natural light, and worked as DP and camera operator on independent productions.

Hoichoi, Kolkata — Creative Producer — 2018 – 2020

I created ancillary content for the platform's films and series, plus short-form originals, taking each piece from writing through the shoot and edit to delivery.

TVF, Bangalore — Director of Photography — 2014 – 2017

I was DP on original shows and sketches, and worked with the team on new formats from idea to shoot.

Studio Red, Kolkata — Art Director — 2014 – 2015

I designed visual identities for eight brands, across print, digital and motion.
